filled house at the Stanley Opera House last evening.

—Fifty-eight candidates for teacher's licenses took their examination before County Examiner Taylor last week.

—John D. Hazen of Tarrytown, N. Y., formerly organist at the North church, gave an enjoyable organ recital at the North church last evening.

has sold through the Rickaby & Co. agency his farm to Joseph H. Clark of West Danville. Possession taken at once.

—The classes of the convent and the parochial schools open on Monday, Aug.
30. In addition to the regular courses shorthand and typewriting will be taught.

—A special train of six cars passed through here Wednesday afternoon carrying the Lewiston Commandery, Knights Templar, on an excursion to Montreal.
There were 149 Sir Knights in the party.

—Several St. Johnsbury people are seriously considering the trip to the Alaska gold fields, but their plans are not far enough completed so that they care to have their names mentioned.

—There are the advertised letters for the week: Agnes J. Duff, Alice Hamilton, Jessie Hayward, Clara Keniston, Mrs.
Delia Messer, Mrs. Sarah Pierce, Mrs.
Christina Stover, Braccio Giuseppe, F. W.
Cheever.

—All members of the Junior Order American Mechanics are requested to meet at their hall Monday evening when business of importance in which every one is interested will be brought up for discussion.

—Dr. R. C. Flower, Boston's eminent specialist, is making a professional tour through the state and will be at the St.
Johnsbury House next Tuesday. The doctor is a very busy man and will be in this town one day only.

—Bicycleists will be interested in a great meet at Littleton next Wednesday and at Lancaster the following Thursday.
There is $800 offered in prizes and a large list of races. The races begin at 2 in the afternoon on each day.

—Forepaugh & Sells' circus comes here next Tuesday, and a good crowd from the surrounding towns may be confidently expected. The circus comes here from Whitefield, and exhibits the next day in White River Junction.

—A subscriber pertinently asks: "What has become of the drinking fountain cups on Main street? They have been missing for three weeks or more. Can it be possible that there is a lawless element in this village which has destroyed them, and why have they not been replaced? Of what use are fountains without cups?"

—Landlord Chase's lease of the St.
Johnsbury House expires soon after the county fair, and he will take charge of a new hotel in Providence. B. G. Howe expects to run the St. Johnsbury House after Mr. Chase's lease expires.

—C. L. Clark has bought the B. F.
Rollins establishment and the shop started up again Monday, after several weeks' shut down. Mr. Clark has worked in the shop for the past year and will push the business as much as possible.

—Postmaster Bundy returned from Lake Morey with a big pickerel which weighed five pounds and ten ounces. He caught it trolling whilehead Dr. Aldrich were out on the water. This is believed to be the biggest fish ever taken from the lake.

—The Bicycle Club did not hold their lantern parade last Tuesday evening on account of the poor condition of the roads, but will hold the same Tuesday evening, Aug. 31, at 8.15. There will be no run next Tuesday evening on account of the circus.

—Prof. C. C. Bonette, St. Johnsbury's daring aeronaut, lost his balloon by fire at Salem Willows, Mass., recently.
Mr. Bonette has been here while his new one was being made and it took 1000 yards of strong cloth to furnish material for the new balloon.

—The annual convention of the Catholic Order of Foresters will be held at St.
Albans Tuesday. St. Johnsbury Court, No. 300, will be represented by Louis Demers. Sherman Court, No. 627, also of St. Johnsbury, will be represented by John R. Corbett. D. F. Lynch attends as member of the state court.

—The Avenue House is nearing completion, and within a month B. G. Howe will have completed the best hotel in this section. A Graves hydraulic elevator is being put in this week, and the plumbers, steamfitters and carpenters are hurrying their work along so as to have the hotel finished if possible before the county fair.

—Nearly a thousand copies of the CAL-EDONIAN containing the account of the Peacham centennial exercises have been sold during the week and extra copies containing the account of both days' exercises may be still had at five cents each. We are indebted to Miss T. M.
Guy, now of Peacham, for our illustrations of the Academy buildings and the pictures added much to the completeness of our report.

—The entertainment given by Miss Eleanor Gertrude Stephens in Music Hall Monday evening deserved a better audience, but those who attended thoroughly enjoyed it. Miss Stephens gave a varied programme, including Tennyson's "Guinevere" and one of Mrs. Phelps-Ward's strong stories, and closed with the dramatic attitudes of which she is the originator. Miss Hauffer sang three times and was well received.

—Wilson & King moved their stock from the store in the Citizens' Bank building to their new store in the Avenue House this week. James Ritchie takes possession of the old store, and will open his dry goods store by Sept. 1. He is now in New York completing his purchases of goods. He expects to have W. A. Hutchinson, formerly of Fairbanks', dry goods store, as head clerk and Miss Belle Kinney will have charge of the ladies' garment department.

—Notice appears elsewhere of the St.
Johnsbury Electric railroad and at this meeting is to adopt the amendment to the charter extending the road to Lyn-donville. The company will begin work on our road as soon as the Montpelier road is finished. The cars will be run by the storage battery system, which will avoid the necessity of trolley overhead wires and thus one great objection, with some, to the road has been removed.

—The St. Johnsbury comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic who are planning to attend the national encampment at Buffalo next week leave here on the afternoon train for Swanton Monday. It is expected that the New Hampshire delegation will join that of Vermont and the train be made special from St. Albans to Buffalo. At Camp Jewett, in Buffalo, 12 tents have been secured sufficient for 60 comrades. These tents are floored and furnished with a mattress for each person free.

—A reunion of the members of the Seventh Vermont Regiment will be held at Burlington, Sept. 1. The exercises will consist of a business meeting in the hall of Stannard Post, at three o'clock p. m., followed by a banquet and campfire in the evening, in connection with the reunion society of the Twelfth Vermont Regiment. It being the week of the state fair, half fare rates have been secured.
All members are requested to be on time.
Notably Dennis E. May, secretary, St.
Johnsbury, whether they will be present or not.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Merchants association was held in the Board of Trade rooms Tuesday evening.

A large number of names were discussed and either held on probation or put on the black list. Secretary Bagley reported 37 new members, with a total now of 388. The new towns added since last meeting are Newport, with 13 members, Coventry 2, Barton Landing 4, Barton 7, Stowe 9. Morrisville now has 28 members and Hardwick 14. The association has lately collected one amount 17 years old. The person didn't want to have the name of being unworthy of credit and so paid up. Collections are constantly being made that have been regarded as worthless.

Stimpson, who formerly worked in the straw board factory at the Centre. Mr.
Harriman leaves next week for his new work, but his family will remain here for the present. His many friends wish him continued success in his Canadian home.

Sunday School Picnic.—The Free Baptist Sunday School had its annual picnic at Meadow Park on Wednesday last and scored a great success. The weather was fine, the attendance large, the tables bountifully supplied with good things, including delicious ice cream for all. More than sixty boys and girls and nearly as many adults reported for duty at the tables. The afternoon was spent in outdoor sports and everybody had the best kind of a good time. Many friends from the Railroad St. Baptist school united in the pleasures of the day.

Among the Churches.—Rev. Frederic E. Dewhurst, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational church of Indianapolis, preached at the South church last Sunday and will preach there again next Sunday. Mr. Dewhurst has a cottage at Cuspiak lake where he has been spend-

Academy Notes.—Clarence H. Ling-ham, Academy '93, Brown University '97, has been engaged as teacher at the Academy. He will take some of the mathematic classes and language work.
Mr. Lingham brings from Brown University the very highest credentials from President Andrews, both in respect to scholarship, manly character, business capacity and tact in dealing with young men. His old St. Johnsbury friends will give him a cordial welcome. The modern languages will be taught by Miss Goodwin and the work in history and English will be in charge of Miss Carpenter and a successor to Mrs. Emma S.
Peters, who will not return to the Academy this fall. The new lady instructor has not been definitely chosen; there are many desirable applicants for the position. The fall term opens Tuesday, Sept.
7, at 9.30 a. m., and the prospect for a large attendance is encouraging.

A Great Day for the White Ribbon Women.—Aug. 30th will be an auspicious day for the W. C. T. U. of Caledonia county, and especially for the union at North Danville, this being the birthplace of Madam Willard, the mother of Frances E. Willard, world's Christian Temperance Union. There will be a tree planting on the old homestead, with an appropriate and interesting programme. Miss Willard, Miss Anna Gordon, Mrs. L. M. Stevens of Maine and Miss Agnes Slack of England are expected to be present. A cordial invitation is extended to all interested. The dinner will be a basket picnic. Tea and coffee will be furnished by the North Danville Union. All relatives of Miss Willard's father and mother either blood-kin or by marriage are requested to be present and sit with her on the platform.

Reunion.—The Third Vermont Regiment held its annual reunion in the G. A.
R. hall here Thursday afternoon, 53 members of the society being present. The address of the occasion was made by J.
H. Walbridge of Concord and an original poem was read by George Bush. Other speakers were Dr. G. B. Ballard, John McDonald, Capt. B. L. Hovey, Capt. P.
D. Blodgett, Albert Chase of Colorado Springs, Arthur Worthen and Marshall Montgomery. A number of communications were read from absent members.
The following officers were elected: President, Carleton Felch; vice president, H. C. Stevens; secretary and treasurer, Samuel E. Pingree; executive committee,

J. A. Paddock, J. W. Paige, Alonzo D.
Parker. Voted to hold the next meeting at St. Johnsbury. Chamberlin post was thanked for the use of the hall and the Relief Corps for providing an excellent dinner.

Sherbrooke Exhibition.—A glance at the list of attractions engaged for this fair will at once convince our readers of the determination of the board of management to furnish a programme for the entertainment of visitors such as has never been witnessed at any previous exhibition. In particular we may mention Harmon and Seabury, the world's champion aerial meteors, introducing somersaults from a tower 100 feet high into a tank of water; the three Powers brothers, comique bicycle artists; the three Renos, contortionists and grotesque dancers; the comical acrobats, Gourlay & Cornelius; the mysterious coach; the celebrated balloonists, Leo Stevens and Miss Cleo Carleton, and many others.
Most satisfactory rates and excursions have been arranged on railways, particulars of which will be given in our next issue.

All Aboard for White River Junction.
—Vermont's gala week is when the Vermont state fair is held at Billings park, White River Junction, and then events long to be remembered take place. This year's exhibition is to be held August 24 to 27, inclusive, and no less than $10,000 has been offered in prizes. The fair association has been admitted to the Vermont and Northern New York Trotting association, and all the fast horses in the circuit will contest in the meet. The cattle exhibition will be a fine one, while the displays in the other departments will be large and complete; there will be the usual coaching parade, and with the exhibitions of the trick animals which have been engaged, there is no doubt but what the fair will eclipse all former efforts. The Boston & Maine railroad has arranged for special rates and extra trains during the progress of the fair, and for information regarding which, see posters.

New Trotting Circuit.—The secretaries of the Barton, Lyndonville and St.
Johnsbury fairs met at Barton last week and formed a northern Vermont circuit for the races at the three fairs next month. Following is the programme of the races and purses:

BARTON, SEPTEMBER 8.
